Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312/Gibson

During the afternoon Fred Rinehart was exhibiting to his fellow-workers pictures of immoral character. Operative obtained one of the above mentioned pictures from Mr. Rinehart.

Operative learned from some of the fellow-workers at the plant that Rinehart was absent from work on the Friday and Saturday following the date of the crime. At that time the foreman of the place received a telephone call from Mrs. Fred Rinehart, saying that Mr. Rinehart was not feeling well, and that he was quite sick.

At 5 p.m. Operative left the factory and after changing clothes, and having supper, proceeded to the railroad station and joined Garry Kenny. Operative accompanied Garry Kenny to the theatre.

While at the theatre Garry and Operative talked about the Case, and Garry related to Operative how Mrs. Mills and Mr. Hall would meet at the railroad station, and how they would leave the station, and go out on Easton Ave.

Upon coming from the show at about 10.30 p.m., Operative left the company of Garry Kenny, and proceeded to his room and discontinued.
